HANBRIDGE WINS IN CANTER

STARTER DADE HAS NO OCCASION FOR START-ING RACE WITHOUT HIM.

Son of Banastar on His Good Behavior at Barrier-Recommendation Made for Revocation of License of Jockey Musgrave.

Jacksonville, Fla., March 13,—Fine, summerish weather prevailed here today and a large crowd turned out at Monerief Park this afternoon. A well balanced program furnished some stirring contests and in five of the finishes the winners were under hard drives. The books benefited by some good breaks and, as only two favorites scored, the followers of form met with heavy loss. In the feature race, a mile selling handicap, Oakhurst displayed great courage in the stretch and, outgaming Compton, beat him a neck, The fact that T. Koerner had the mount on Compton was responsible for the later being heavily backed. Compton runs his best races in front, but Koerner rated him behind today, with the result that he was beaten in a race that the result that he was beaten in a race that

W. May sprung another one of his occasionals should have won.

J. W. May sprung another one of his occasionals in the opening dash, a two-year-old sprint at half a mile in Mary Emily, which beat the favorite, Day May, a head.

Zool and St. Joseph were winning outsiders. The latter beat a fair lot in the sixth race. He was ridden by J. McIntyre and, showing sudden improvement, led most of the way and outgamed Camel in the final drive.

Hanbridge was on his good behavior today and made a show of his opposition in the third race, which he won in a canter by five lengths. Notice was posted to the effect that, while every effort would be made to obtain a good start, the field would not be kept at the post if Hanbridge should be unruly.

would be made to obtain a good start. The need would not be kept at the post if Hambridge should be unruly.

At the close of the day's racing the judges gave out the following copy of an official communication: "To the stewards of the Florida Live Stock and Agricultural State Fair Association—Gentlemen: Some days since we issued a ruling denying jockey Musgrave the privilege of riding here again. In the light of subsequent events, the ruling as made does not express adequately our opinion of Musgrave's work during the season now drawing to a close and we respectfully recommend that his license as a jockey be revoked." It is understood that Musgrave had contracted to ride for J. E. Seagram during the coming season, but the action taken by the judges this afternoon means that the lad will be in bad standing until the local officials lift the suspension. Sylvestris, winner of the fifth race, was boosted $405 over her entered price of $400 and was protected and bought in.

Jockey Byrne was suspended for one week by the judges for cutting across in front of the other starters in the sixth race.

G. M. Odom's Fleet Filly Up to Her Old Tricks at Juarez—Mexican Track Patronage Increasing.

El Paso, Tex., March 13.—A combination of one of the most brilliant cards of the meeting and perfect weather brought out one of the largest Sunday crowds of the season yesterday. The especial attraction of the day was the Primavera Handicap at three-quarters of a mile. The field, in which Jim Basey, the California crack three-year-old was an added starter, was one whose quality would attract attention from race-goers anywhere. The adjustment of weights by the handicapper made the race appear an open one, but the public seemed to look upon it as a foregone conclusion that G. M. Odom's fleet filly, Follic Levy, would win, and accordingly backed her into strong favoritsm at post time. Trance and Round the World were other starters that did not lack for support in the ring. The race proved a great disappointment, as the favorite, after breaking well, propped and wheeled, refusing to run thereforence, first from Jim Basey and later from Trance, Jockey T. Rice claimed foul in both cases, but his claim was disallowed by the stewards.

The secondary feature of the program brought about the reduction of another track record when Naja Nick ran five and one-half furlongs in 1:05½, which bettered the former time for the distance by one-fifth of a second.

The layers, owing to the success of but one of the public choices, had a highly profitable day and recouped much of their recent losses.

Saturday's ruling of the stewards against jockey Ganz has been amended to $25 instead of suspension, Import, a one-time good whiner, broke down after his creditable race of Saturday and probably will never race again.

With the return of good weather and an improvement in the class of horses competing, the daily patronage is steadily increasing in a manner that is most graiffying to the management.

For an off day and an ordinary program today's attendance at Terrazas Park was surprisingly large, fully 2,000 being on hand. Form was fairly well a

LATONIA IMPROVEMENTS IN PROGRESS

Cincinnati, O., March 13.—Work on the improvement of the Latonia racing enclosure began today and opening day this spring will find quite a transformation at the Kenton County course. The grandstand will get a thorough overhauling and boxes and reserved seats will be placed at the end nearest the clubhouse. The betting shed will be moved back, so that the increased heighth of ten feet will not shut off the view of the occupants of seats in the lower end of the stand. The betting shed will be brought up to the grandstand and will be altered and connected with the paddock by a new covered walk. The offices of the club and of the pari-mutuel department will take up the entire lower end of the shed.

New contrivances will show the total amount of money wagered on each horse, straight, place and show, and those that care to figure can then without any trouble check up the official figures. Formerly the number of tickets of different denominations were shown, but this made it necessary for one to resort to multiplication and addition before figuring on the correctness of the announced value of winning tickets.

All of the stands will be repainted, and this includes the clubhouse. A new automobile shed will be built, so that all machines can remain under cover. The stables will also be repaired and about 1,500 loads of sand and loam will be spread on the track proper.

Latonia will look spic and span after all this work is completed, and nature will do the rest for the surroundings. The green foothills of the Licking Valley between which Latonia nestles make a most effective background.
